April 2016

CCGCI Range Rule Review

#30. When finished, remove targets from target boards and pick up all spent casings. CCGCI does not hire cleaning staff and members are expected to leave the area free of trash and debris.

Please pick up your brass for everyone's safety!

Cookout & Open House

Spring is almost here! Time for our cookouts and open houses again!

Our cookouts are pot luck style. If you can help bring an item like hotdogs, hamburgers, buns, condiments, drinks, ice, side dish, dessert or even something from the store would help make our cookout yummy!

Receiving too much mail from the NRA?

Simply email them at membership@nrahq.org or dial 800-NRA-3888 and request to be placed on the "Do Not Promote"list. This will significantly reduce the amount of mail you receive without affecting important mailings, magazine service, or your membership renewal.

We thank Dennis and Mary Clare for all their help at last year's cookouts. They will be unable to help this year, so if you'd like to help set up/clean up for the cookout and/or be our grill master, please let us know.

Tar Heel Air Gun Club (www.thagc.com) will be at our cookout in April. You are welcome to watch their shoot in the morning and talk with them about their club.

Our photo album is up and running again! So if you have photos of friends and family at the range you would like to share on the website, please email them to carly@ccgci.org

Also, we are going to have a CCGCI photo contest. Winner to be announced at our first cookout of 2016, Saturday, April 30th. To enter, please email your photo to carly@ccgci.org and include your name and membership number in the email. Please see rules below:

- Must be a member to enter and only one entry per membership.
- Photo must display some part of the range (not just people and firearms).
- By submitting a photo to the contest, you are giving permission for CCGCI to post this picture on the CCGCI website and club flyers.
- CCGCI officers cannot enter.
- Winner will be selected by the Executive Committee.
- Deadline for entries April 23, 2016.
- Winner will be announced at April 30, 2016 Cookout.
- Minimum 25 entry required for contest to proceed.
